

Activity Cards - Print and cut a full set for each group

Participating in a march or rally	Reading a book or watching a film on race issues
Writing a blog, article, or book related to racial justice	Attending lectures or conferences focused on race
Creating workshops to educate about race and racial justice	Talking with family/friends about racial justice

Supporting POC-led political actions	Fund-raising to support POC-led groups
Hosting multi-racial or affinity group dialogues	Participating on a diversity, equity, or inclusivity committee
Door-to-door canvassing to promote justice-oriented legislation	Creating or participating in community-based development projects

Providing one-to-one mentorship to people building an anti-racist practice	Acting as an ally for a friend or associate
Using personal resources to support anti-racism activities	Studying theories of social change
Creating or implementing curriculum that supports anti-racist practice development	Participating in consciousness-raising groups

Contacting a public official to advocate a position	Creating or participating in initiatives to shift policies in one's community
Attending meetings held by activist organizations	Writing a letter to the editor
Disrupting enactments of privilege during conversations	Recruiting people into anti-racism through one-to-one conversations

Giving a speech	Investigating one's own relationship to privilege
Phone banking to push a position	Starting a tutoring program to support at risk students of color
Serving food at a homeless shelter serving mostly POC	Collecting holiday gifts for disadvantaged kids of color